FLAVORS IN BLOOM: California-Inspired Spring Wine Dinner Friday, April 12, 2013 6:00pm-9:00PM

Join UCSD Alumni, Geisel Library, and the Ida and Cecil Green Faculty Club to experience a night of culinary exploration focused on the pleasures of spring. This exclusive wine dinner will present seasonal and regional tastes, California-style, featuring two UC San Diego alumni culinary experts. UCSD Alumna and award-winning cookbook author Georgeanne Brennan, M.A. '69, a pioneer in the slow food movement, specializes in creating simple yet intensely flavorful food inspired by her years cooking with the seasons in Provence. She'll be joined by Paula Jussila, Muir '80, whose family vineyard Kukkula in Paso Robles makes blended Rhones using the best in farming practices, including dry farming, organic methods, and limited yields. Together, Georgeanne and Paula will present an educational and delicious wine pairing to delight home cooks and well-traveled gourmards alike.

Dr. David A. Shirk

"Five Reasons to Care About US-Mexico Relations"

Dr. David A. Shirk is the director of the Trans-Border Institute and Assistant Professor in the Political Science Department at the University of San Diego. He received his B.A. in International Studies at Lock Haven University, and his M.A. and Ph.D. in Political Science at the University of California, San Diego, and was fellow at the Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies from 1998-99 and 2001-2003. He conducts research on Mexican politics, U.S.-Mexican relations, and law enforcement and security along the U.S.-Mexican border. He teaches and lectures widely on related issues in the United States, as well as Latin America and Europe. Dr. Shirk is currently the principal investigator for the Justice in Mexico project (www.justiceinmexico.org), a bi-national research initiative on criminal justice and the rule of law in Mexico.

Sounding Board is a series of seven lectures during the academic year, the first Thursday at 12 noon, sponsored by UC San Diego Oceanids and the UC San Diego Faculty Club. Oceanids, faculty and friends meet at the UCSD Faculty Club in a specially designated room to eat lunch and listen to fascinating speakers. Lunch is $13.00 for guests and $9.00 for Faculty Club members (purchase required). Coffee and iced tea are provided in the meeting room. A parking permit can be obtained at the front desk.

Robert Koenigsberger

Founder, CIO, Managing Partner Gramercy

"Emerging Markets Perspective on the European Debt Crisis"

Robert S. Koenigsberger is founder, chief investment officer and the managing partner of Gramercy. He founded Gramercy in 1998 with a vision for the firm to become a global, institutional investment management firm focused on emerging markets.

Koenigsberger has more than 25 years of investment experience dedicated to emerging markets with a specialization in fixed income securities. He serves as portfolio manager for Gramercy Argentina Opportunity Fund and co-portfolio manager for Gramercy

Emerging Markets Fund, Gramercy Distressed Opportunity Fund and Gramercy Distressed Opportunity Fund II. In 2010, he led Gramercy's efforts in conceiving, organizing and facilitating the successful restructuring of Argentina's defaulted debt, the first private sector-led restructuring of a sovereign default. Koenigsberger is head of the Investment Committee and the Asset Allocation Committee. Prior to founding Gramercy, Koenigsberger was a senior vice president at Lehman Brothers from 1995 to 1998, where he managed the bank's sovereign debt restructuring group. Prior to that, he was a vice president at Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated for three years where he traded performing and distressed emerging markets debt securities in New York, London and Hong Kong. From 1987 to 1991, he held the position of vice president at CR-P Associates, a financial advisory firm with offices in Central and South America that led sovereign debt restructurings, debt buy-backs and debt-equity swap transactions in Latin America. Koenigsberger received a Master of Business Administration in finance from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, a Master of Arts in international studies with a concentration in Latin America from the University of Pennsylvania and a Bachelor of Arts in Latin American political science and history of Latin America with a minor in economics from the UC San Diego, where he graduated with honors. He completed his undergraduate and graduate theses on the historical origins and implications of the Latin American debt crisis.
